At 11:45am today Texas Rangers arrested Leroy Pratt, 50, of Navasota, Grimes County, Texas on a warrant stemming from a fatal collision that occurred in Eastern Travis County in September 2018.

At 9:00am on September 27, 2018 a commercial vehicle collided with a 2000 Ford Ranger pickup truck near the intersection of Pearce Lane and State Hwy 130. Both occupants of the truck were killed in the collision. The other vehicle involved left the scene of the crash. Texas DPS Highway Patrol responded to the scene and began an investigation. The Texas Rangers joined the investigation and assisted the Highway Patrol in attempting to locate the whereabouts of the driver who left the scene. After an investigation lasting several months, in conjunction with the Vehicular Crimes Special Prosecution (VCSP) Unit of the Travis County District Attorney's Office, Leroy Pratt was identified as the suspect, and the case was presented to a Travis County Grand Jury.

On August 26, 2019, Pratt was indicted on two second degree felony counts of Accident Involving Death (commonly known as Failure to Stop and Render Aid).
